Robin Rothschild is a singer, song writer, guitarist, recording studio owner, producer, and music publisher who started at the age of twelve (many many years ago). Since the 1960's she has played and studied with many acclaimed musicians such as Guy Clark and Peter Gardner. She has since gone on to perform and record with other performing artists such as Frankie Avalon, Howie Epstein, Leslie West, Ace Butler, Jeff Scroggins, and was an opening act for John Prine. Robin loves to sing in many different languages; including English, French, Russian, Italian, Spanish, Hebrew and Yiddish and has enjoyed playing and performing in many places across the US and around the world. Robin writes songs written from real life experience, which she believes is the true nature of folk music; a story passed down from generation to generation, constantly evolving and growing.

She has received honorable mentions for many of her songs and recordings from the Mid Atlantic Song Competition. She also took second place at the 2013 Winnfield Bluegrass Festival for her song, "Reach For The Sky". This album is a collection of songs written and recorded by Robin throughout her career and is her tribute to the folk artists that taught her, performed with her, and inspired her to become the artist she is today. Especially her lifelong friend and mentor, producer Charlie Fishman. Recommended tracks for airplay are Elie's House (#1), Red Robin (#2), and Famous & Exciting (#4), or whichever song off the album is your favorite.
